

Extra-tricky QUIZ for truly dedicated fans

- 1 Name the popular illustrator of many of Jacqueline Wilson's books.

.....

- 2 Which girls' magazine, popular in the Seventies, was named after Jacqueline Wilson?

.....

- 3 Which two of Jacqueline's books boast two illustrators, and why?

.....

.....

.....

- 4 What do Jacqueline Wilson and Treasure's nan (in Secrets) have in common? (Clue: think cowboy boots!)

.....

.....

5 Do you know where Jacqueline Wilson went to school?

.....

6 How many fan letters do you think Jacqueline receives every week?

.....

7 Jacqueline has also written a series of novels for adults: what subject links them all?

.....

8 Which of Jacqueline's novels won the Guardian Children's Fiction Prize and the Children's Book of the Year Award in 2000?

.....

9 In The Story of Tracy Beaker, Tracy is ten years and two months old when she begins to write My Book About Me. Can you work out which month it must be at the time of writing? (Clue: think birthdays!)

.....

10 What is Tracy Beaker's 'most Daring Dare ever'?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

11 In The Illustrated Mum, what is the correct term for the condition from which Marigold suffers?

.....

12 Whose motto is, 'Make friends, make friends, never never break friends'?

.....

13 Who has rainbow glasses?

.....

14 In Double Act, what is the name of the country village the twins move to?

.....

15 Which village and county provide the location for the boarding school the twins want to attend?

.....

16 In Double Act, why are china dolls a sensitive subject with Ruby?

.....

.....

.....

17 In The Lottie Project, which famous Victorian novel does Charlie give to Jamie Edwards for Christmas, and why this one in particular?

.....

18 The Sunday Telegraph described one of Jacqueline's stories as 'a complex and moving exploration of guilt and bereavement'; can you guess which one?

.....

19 In The Cat Mummy, can you name the special cat goddess that Verity's class learn about as part of their project?

.....

20 Can you remember the wording of the dedication at the beginning of The Mum-Minder?

.....

Extra-tricky QUIZ ANSWERS

- 1 Nick Sharratt
- 2 Jackie (of course!)
- 3 Double Act and Buried Alive! have two illustrators (Nick Sharratt and Sue Heap) because the main characters, Ruby and Garnet (in Double Act) and Tim and Biscuits (in Buried Alive!), are supposed to have drawn the pictures themselves.
- 4 They both enjoy line-dancing!
- 5 Latchmere Primary School and Coombe Girls Secondary School
- 6 She receives at least 200 fan letters a week!
- 7 They are all crime novels.
- 8 The Illustrated Mum
- 9 It must be July – two months after Tracy's birthday (8 May).
- 10 It is the one where Football dares Tracy to take off her knickers, climb up the fir tree outside the empty house, and hang them on the top branch, like a Christmas decoration! (The Dare Game)
- 11 Manic depression
- 12 This is the motto of Ruby and Garnet, the twins in Double Act.
- 13 Mandy (Bad Girls)
- 14 Cussop
- 15 Gorselea, in Sussex
- 16 They are a sensitive subject because Ruby sold hers at a car-boot sale for £20, but Rose helped Garnet sell hers at an auction for £600!
- 17 She gives him Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte, because it is 'by a Charlotte, from a Charlotte!'
- 18 Vicky Angel
- 19 Bastet
- 20 For the Dimwits, who aren't dim at all, but are very witty

